Avoid the Holiday Hassles!

Shop with us! We have plenty of parking, great gifts (especially for those people who are tough to buy for), and we'll wrap the gifts for you!

No lines, no crowds, no stress! Come to The Nurturing Nook for all your gift needs. Put money back into your own community by purchasing from our local artisans and crafters. Most all of the products in our store have been made by the people in your community.

This month, The Nurturing Nook would like to highlight a few of our artists.

First, the sparkling Gel Candles in glass stemware and crystal are made right here in the store by us. Our handcrafted candles are made with high quality gel and oil scents. They burn twice as long as regular candles, and we'll refill the glass with your choice of color and scent for only 50¢ per ounce! Ignore any false rumors about exploding candles. These candles are beautiful, safe and smell divine!

Amy Wells from Cumming has been designing intuitive jewelry for years. She has created some stunningly gorgeous jewelry that not only looks great, but also has healing energy "built" in. Check out the calendar for when Amy is available for her Spiritual Energy readings. Stop by and try on a piece of the "Law of Attraction" collection! Her jewelry is fashionable and fun. Buy that special someone a one-of-a-kind gift that will truly make them feel good. Or you could pick up a gift certificate for one of her spiritual readings!!

The Nurturing Nook is honored to offer our community the glassblowing art of Loretta Eby from Watkinsville, GA. She has been designing and glassblowing since 1984 and her art can be found in galleries all over the world. We have many of her pieces, including the reed diffusers (a great alternative to an open flame for aromatherapy) and one-of-a-kind ornaments and perfume bottles. Loretta's art is beautiful and each piece is signed, as well.

Watch your email for special coupons for these highlighted items.

The Nurturing Nook also has a Make-it-Yourself jewelry counter if you or your children would like to make a special gift for yourself, a parent or grandparent. This is a neat way to transform some of grandma's old clip earrings into a pendant on necklace. We'll help you put together something unique that sparkles!
